

I am in utter disbelief that Chairman Powell and his friends would create rules relative to media ownership that dismantle democracy in America. I thought the present state of affairs was bad enough, but the idea that only a couple of companies could control the flow of information in this country is very very disturbing. I am deeply disappointed at what is happening. I ask that Chairman Powell and his friends to reconsider their views in light of the devastating effects they will certainly have on this nation.